PRACTICAL STUDIES GUIDE

An internship is not required for the PR or advertising major, but we recommend that you complete at least one internship before graduation. The University's online recruiting system, Handshake, provides information on job opportunities and oncampus job interviews: <https://career.sa.ua.edu/handshake/>. You will need to activate your account and upload a current résumé. The C&IS internship page also provides info on current advertising and PR internships and job opportunities: <https://cis.ua.edu/internships/>. In addition, go to 2615 Capital (Mr. Wisla), 418-B Phifer (Ms. Daria), or 418-D Phifer (Ms. Sims) for advertising and PR internship opportunities.

APR 100 PROFESSIONAL EXPLORATORY

- The Professional Exploratory provides the student with one of the following, depending on qualifications: 1) an opportunity to shadow advertising or PR professionals in the workplace while being introduced to current practices and trends in the field or 2) an opportunity to gain practical experience (such as an internship) in the advertising or public relations field.
- Enrollment is by permission of the internship coordinator (or faculty sponsor) and the departmental chairman.
- In order to qualify for APR 100 as a shadow opportunity for one hour of credit on a Pass/Fail basis, the student must have an overall GPA of at least a 2.0 and be a declared advertising or PR major or minor. In order to qualify for APR 100 as a practical experience opportunity for one to three hours of credit on a Pass/Fail basis, the student must have an overall GPA of a 2.0 and have completed Phase 2 of the advertising or PR major or minor coursework. This course is repeatable for a six-hour-credit maximum.
- The A+PR internship coordinator or APR faculty member who agrees to be the student's faculty sponsor will initiate the APR 100 application approval process once the student has provided a brief description of the shadow opportunity or practical experience responsibilities.

NON-CREDIT INTERNSHIP

- Students pursue non-credit internships on their own.
- Factors such as length, timing and nature of the advertising or public relations experience are between the employer and the student.
- No academic credit is received for this type of internship, though the internship should be noted on the student's résumé.

APR 380 INDEPENDENT STUDY

- Analysis of advanced theoretical issues in commercial persuasive communication. Students wishing to enroll in APR 380 Independent Study must prepare a detailed proposal of what will be included in the course based upon prior discussion with a faculty member of their choice.
- The proposal must be submitted to and approved by both the sponsoring faculty member and the Department Chairman before registering for APR 380. The sponsoring faculty member has some flexibility in determining the point at which a student enters into the independent study agreement.
- The sponsoring faculty member will evaluate the student's performance based upon project-specific factors.
- Depending on the nature of the project, students may earn 1-9 hours of academic credit (tuition required).
- Students will receive a letter grade for this course.
- As an alternative to APR 380, students may earn independent study credit through New College. Visit the New College office (201 Lloyd Hall) for more information.
- APR 380 should not be confused with distance education courses offered through the College of Continuing Studies.

ADVERTISING AND PUBLIC RELATIONS DEFINED

ADVERTISING

DESCRIPTION

Advertising is the creative expression of strategic, persuasive communication. As a marketing function, it focuses on the promotion of products, services, companies, organizations and ideas through paid media space. Magazines, newspapers, television, radio, outdoor/transit and the Internet are all examples of advertising media.

INTERESTS AND SKILLS

Advertising students will develop and hone critical and creative thinking skills. They acquire an understanding of the intended audience for persuasive communication and create relevant messages that resonate, using both practical and theoretical knowledge. The skills students learn in this program include the ability to conduct research to measure program needs, gain audience insight, develop program quantifiable objectives and focused strategies, implement state-of-the-art tactics, and cultivate the tools to measure a program's return on investment.

DEGREE OPTIONS

Major in advertising (general, creative specialization, or consumer specialization)

B.A. in Communication

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Graduates find employment at advertising integrated communication agencies; creative boutiques; the advertising or promotional departments of businesses, industries and government agencies; and with traditional and nontraditional media outlets.

TYPES OF JOBS ACCEPTED

Our graduates work as copywriters, art directors, account managers, account planners, media sales representatives, photographers, production specialists, media consultants, management advisers, public opinion surveyors and marketing researchers.

JOBS OF EXPERIENCED ALUMNI

Owners, presidents & CEOs of advertising agencies, vice president-corporate communication, professors, creative directors, account executives, etc.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

Public relations is the creative expression of strategic persuasive communication to build relationships vital to the success of the organization. It is used by individuals and organizations to communicate and motivate consumers, voters, employees, suppliers, shareholders, public interest groups and the general public. In the public relations program, students will master the role of PR in a diverse, global marketplace; the four-step PR process of research, program planning, communication and evaluation; the strategies used in PR to achieve program objectives; the multimedia tactics required to implement PR programs in a digital environment; and the application of PR in the numerous venues of modern society, including corporations, agencies and nonprofit organizations.

INTERESTS AND SKILLS

Success requires a passion for learning about public relations and for writing. Other skills acquired in this program include the ability to conduct research to measure program needs, develop program quantifiable objectives and focused strategies, implement state-of-the-art tactics, and develop the mastery of tools to measure a program's return on investment. Students of public relations will develop and hone critical and creative thinking skills.
